Postgraduate Research Students Conference

The German Historical Institute London will hold its 26th postgraduate research students conference on Thursday 13 and Friday 14 January 2022. Its intention is to give postgraduate research students from the UK and Ireland working on German history an opportunity to present their work-in-progress and to discuss this with other students working in the same field.

This conference is for postgraduate research students studying German History at a UK/Irish university from the middle ages through to contemporary history. It is especially suitable for 2nd and 3rd year candidates to assist using research facilities and obtaining grants.

Please note that all 2nd and 3rd year students are encouraged to present a paper on their PhD project.

If you wish to attend next year's postgraduate students conference (Thursday 13 to Friday 14 January 2022), please email: PGconference@ghil.ac.uk by 30 November 2021 confirming the following details:

- full contact details (including email address and telephone number),
- the exact title of your project,
- the date you started your project,
- confirm if you are studying full or part time,
- the name, address, email address and phone number of your university and supervisor,

Please note that accommodation and/or travel costs will be reimbursed by the GHIL, but only for those who attend the entire event.
